Losing Face and Saving Grace

(Matthew Cheng)

This study is based on Tom Lin's bible study entitled: "Losing Face and Saving Grace".

We have to deal with unique challenges as Asian immigrants as we grapple with the challenges of traditional Asian values. Not to say that these values are in any ways wrong, The challenge is to examine these values and see how they fit into our Christian belief.

Many of us are brought up in a culture where we are told our best effort is not enough because we must all be doctors, lawyers, accountants, or the best pianist, violinist. (By the way, no Asian parents want their children to be the best drummer !!) Falling short will bring shame to the family. The family becomes a "performance-based" family, it becomes a "business" where the "brand" (family name) is more important than the integrity of the "business", or acquiring financial security of the "business" is more important than trusting the Lord in providing security in our lives. Some of us suffer from low esteem because we place the values in the wrong places and we cannot attain the standards set by men.

We will explore some of these issues through biblical stories and deal with these struggles through prayer and class discussion.

Opening Your Heart to God (Janice Lee)

Prayer, Opening Your Heart to God is based on Bill Hybels InterActions Bible study series. It's time to make time for God. We're all busy people but in the midst of your busyness do you find time to talk to God? God wants you to have an intimate and dynamic relationship with him but it only happens when you have a direct relationship with Him.

In this course we will be looking at authentic prayer, dangerous prayers, unanswered prayer and honest prayers. This class is for you if you desire a deeper relationship with God.
